

There's Healing in the Holy Communion

The first time _____ is mentioned in the Bible is in Genesis 14:18. Melchizedek brought _____ and _____, and he was the _____ of the most high God.

A priest represented God to the people, and represented the people to God. Most high means the _____ cause of everything.

Genesis 14:19 – He _____ Abram.

In communion, you can thank God for His blessing in four areas:

1. Salvation for your _____.
2. Health for your _____.
3. Prosperity for your _____.
4. Wellbeing for every member of your _____.

In communion remember that you are _____.

Genesis 14:20 – In communion, remember that we have the victory over every _____. Abram gave _____ of all. Tithing is an expression of thanks, that God is your SOURCE. You can take communion with your tithe and _____. Tithe means tenth, the first fruits of all your _____ (Proverbs 3:9-10)

What is the Holy _____? Also known as the Lord's _____, represents the greatest expression of God's _____ for his people.

Two elements used in the Holy Communion: The _____ which represents Jesus' _____ that was scourged and broken before His crucifixion. And the cup of _____, which represents His shed blood.

At the cross, God took all of our _____ and _____ and put them on Jesus' perfect and healthy body, so that we can walk in divine _____. By His _____ we were _____. Isaiah 53:5, Matthew 8:17, 1 Peter 2:24

Jesus tells us in Luke 22:20, that the cup is the “_____ in My blood”.

According to Colossians 1:14 and Ephesians 1:7, Jesus' blood has brought _____ of sins. According to Hebrews 10:10, Jesus' sacrifice paid for all of our sins – past, present and future – through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ _____ and for all.

Why do believers celebrate Holy Communion?

Besides being born again in Christ, a _____ body and mind is the greatest blessing anyone can have. Holy Communion is God's ordained channel of _____ and _____.

We are to remember Him in Holy Communion.

Jesus wanted us to be conscious of how His body was _____ for our wholeness, and His _____ was shed for the forgiveness of sin. 1 Corinthians 11:26.

Jesus' blood gives us _____ standing before God, and we can go boldly into God's presence. Hebrews 4:16

1 Samuel 7:7-11 - By doing this they were proclaiming the Lord's death, and the battle would turn in their _____. Today, when we are faced with an enemy, how do we offer our _____ offering? How do we proclaim the Lord's death and come out _____? Do we ask Jesus to come down to where we are and die on the cross again? Today, we proclaim His death by partaking in _____ communion.

5 things that happen when you take Holy Communion.
